Cauley Geller Announces Class Action Lawsuit Against Sonus Networks, Inc. On Behalf of Investors

Thursday February 12, 1:47 pm ET

NEW YORK, Feb. 12 /PRNewswire/ -- The Law Firm of Cauley Geller Bowman & Rudman, LLP announced today that a class action lawsuit has been filed in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts on behalf of purchasers of Sonus Networks, Inc. (Nasdaq: SONS - News; "Sonus" or the "Company") publicly traded securities during the period between June 3, 2003 and February 11, 2004, inclusive (the "Class Period"). A copy of the complaint filed in this action is available from the Court, or can be viewed on the firm's website at http://www.cauleygeller.com/show_case.asp?ccode=244&pcode=10&pp=4.

The complaint charges Sonus Networks, Inc., Hassan Ahmed and Stephen Nill with violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder. More specifically, the complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, defendants issued numerous statements to the market concerning the Company's financial results, which failed to disclose and/or misrepresented the following adverse facts, among others: (a) that defendants had improperly and untimely recognized revenue on certain of the Company's customer transactions; (b) that defendants violated Generally Accepted Accounting Principles and the Company's own internal policies regarding the timing of revenue recognition; and (c) as a result of the foregoing, the Company's revenues, net income and earnings per share published during the Class Period were materially false and misleading.

On February 11, 2004, after the close of regular trading, Sonus shocked the market when it announced that the Company had identified certain issues, practices and actions of certain employees relating to both the timing of revenue recognized from certain customer transactions and to certain other financial statement accounts, which may affect the Company's 2003 financial statements and possibly financial statements for prior periods. Prior to disclosing these adverse facts, Sonus completed a $126.14 million public offering, and Sonus insiders sold approximately $2 million of their personally-held shares to the unsuspecting public.

The next morning, when the market opened for trading, shares of the Company's stock fell as low as $5.02 per share, a decline of $1.67 per share, or 24.9%, on extremely high trading volume.

If you bought Sonus publicly traded securities between June 3, 2003 and February 11, 2004, inclusive, and you wish to serve as lead plaintiff, you must move the Court no later than April 12, 2004. If you are a member of this class, you can join this class action online at <http://www.cauleygeller.com/template8.asp?pcode=6&pp=1>. Any member of the purported class may move the Court to serve as lead plaintiff through Cauley Geller or other counsel of their choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an absent class member.

Cauley Geller is a national law firm that represents investors and consumers in class action and corporate governance litigation. It is one of the country's premiere firms in the area of securities fraud, with in-house finance and forensic accounting specialists and extensive trial experience. Since its founding, Cauley Geller has recovered in excess of two billion dollars on behalf of aggrieved shareholders. The firm maintains offices in Boca Raton, Little Rock and New York.

If you have any questions about how you may be able to recover for your losses, or if you would like to consider serving as one of the lead plaintiffs in this lawsuit, you are encouraged to call or e-mail the Firm or visit the Firm's website at www.cauleygeller.com.

retirement plan participants in class actions in which no lead counsel has been formally appointed, in Crowley v. Corning Inc., No. 02cv06172 (W.D.N.Y.) and Furstenau v. AT&T, Case No. 02 CV 8853 (D.N.J.). We are also responsible for the seminal decision in Vivien v. Worldcom, Civil Action No. 2-01329 (N.D.Cal.) in which the Court in denying a motion to dismiss affirmed the legal theory upon which these cases are based.

PARTNERS

Andrew M. Schatz is a graduate of Cornell University, with honors, and graduated from Harvard Law School (J.D., cum laude) in 1976. Mr. Schatz joined the Chicago firm now known as Sachnoff & Weaver, and he became a partner of that firm in 1979. While at Sachnoff & Weaver, Mr. Schatz primarily handled plaintiffs class action litigation and was involved in the prosecution of major securities class actions, including cases against Equity Funding Corp. of America and the Washington Public Power Supply System.

In 1987, Mr. Schatz joined Schatz & Schatz, Ribicoff & Kotkin in Hartford, Connecticut, where he headed that firm's corporate and securities litigation practice. While at Schatz & Schatz, Ribicoff & Kotkin, Mr. Schatz represented publicly-held corporations and their directors and officers as defendants in securities class actions, including North American Holding Corporation, Gateway Financial Corporation, Ames Department Stores and All For A Dollar.

Mr. Schatz is a member of the Securities Advisory Council to the Connecticut Department of Banking, a member of the Connecticut and American Bar Associations and a speaker on panels relating to the duties of directors of publicly held corporations.

Jeffrey S. Nobel graduated from Albany Law School in 1989, where he was Associate Editor of its Law Review. Following his graduation from law school, Mr. Nobel joined Schatz & Schatz, Ribicoff & Kotkin. While at Schatz & Schatz, Ribicoff & Kotkin, Mr. Nobel represented
